What parents who attended OKPEAP say...

"I cannot control what my co-parent does or says. I am responsible for how I respond and for what kind of example I set for my children."

"I actually looked forward to coming to class each week."

"This program has made the struggle of being a single/separated parent a little easier and really shown me that I am most definitely not alone."

"Very helpful in understanding things from the kid's perspective."

FAMILY & COMMUNITY SERVICES

OUR KIDS PARENT EDUCATION AND AWARENESS PROGRAM

For separated and/or divorced parents

Enrollment Form Inside

Allegany and Cattaraugus Counties

Do you have questions about how your separation or divorce has affected your children?

Have you experienced conflict with your former partner when it comes to custody and/or access issues related to your children?

Have you thought about the effects of that conflict on your children?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, the parent education and awareness program may be for you!

The Our Kids Parent Education and Awareness Program is designed for parents and significant others who want to reduce conflict and parent effectively for their children.

Parents of the same children are placed in different groups, however each group consists of a mix of both custodial and non-custodial parents.

Grandparents and new partners are encouraged to attend.

Group Specifics

Each group consists 3 sessions totaling approximately 7.5 hours. Participants will receive a NYS PEAP Certificate of Compliance upon completion of the group. Videos, discussions and role plays will be part of the group experience.

Topics will include:

- The impact of separation/divorce on children
- Child development and the implications for parenting after separation/divorce
- “Cooperative” and “parallel” approaches to parenting
- An overview of family law as it affects custody and visitation
- Conflict management and problem-solving

Location

In Allegany County, groups are held in Wellsville. In Cattaraugus County, group are held in Olean. Groups are also available at sites in Erie, Chautauqua, Genesee, Niagara, Orleans and Wyoming County. Call us for more details at (716) 372-0101.
